Attentive, Friendly & Professional Service

"When we stepped foot in Bloomfield House Hotel we knew straight away there was a high level of expertise in the surroundings; we fell for the beautiful views and welcome smile from the Wedding co-ordinator and her staff. She has a small team that are well versed in keeping couples happy. They are a very professional bunch and pulled off a fabulous day for everyone of our guests and ourselves. Going through our planning "no" was never answered to one of our questions or requests. There were no hidden fees and no surprises in any way. We felt extremely comfortable on our wedding day and felt at home with everyone of the staff. Each one knew our names and knew every aspect of our planned day. We would not have changed a thing. Being a same sex marriage, our ceremony was onsite. Catering for 268 people was an impossible feat completed to perfection. The food was absolutely fantastic with not one complaint through the day. Compliments were flying and still are. We had heard that the Bloomfield food was excellent and they stayed true to their word. Bloomfield and their staff with their fantastic venue have nothing to change as they have it down. A hotel I would be bringing other hotel staff to train in: a centre of excellence. Memories created that will never be forgotten"

Many years of experience

"Thank you so much for helping to make our wedding day so great. Everyone loved the hotel and were complimenting the food all day. The food was gorgeous. The reception staff couldn't have been more helpful or nicer. It's obvious Sharon knows exactly what she is doing from the moment she came to the door for me to go downstairs. Loved the fact that the menu and the seating plan was given to us as a memento"

A picture perfect Wedding venue

*"We had our wedding reception in Bloomfield House and everything about the venue and our day was perfect! This was thanks to the wonderful banqueting and wedding co-ordinators who assisted us throughout the planning process from our initial visit and made everything stress free. Their knowledge and experience really assisted us and all the staff were so courteous and a pleasure to deal with for both us and our guests. The location on the lakeshore was the perfect backdrop for our special day and we were left with fabulous photos and memories which we treasure"

Sleep in four star luxury

"We had our wedding reception at Bloomfield House Hotel and we can honestly say it was the best day of our lives. From attending many weddings and functions in Bloomfield we knew from the start it was the venue for our big day. After our first meeting, we knew we had made the right choice. Bloomfield is an amazing wedding venue, the lake and grounds are beautiful and ideal for photos. We had family from England staying in the hotel for a few nights and they were highly complementary of their stay. On the day itself everything was perfect, from our reception drinks, fabulous dinner and afters buffet. All our guests complemented the delicious food. The ballroom was decorated beautifully. Everything ran so smoothly thanks to the brilliant banquet manager Sharon and all the staff on the day. Our guests complemented how friendly and helpful the staff were. We enjoyed every minute of our day. The honeymoon suite was fabulous and we had an amazing breakfast delivered to us the next morning, the prosecco went down a treat! We also received lots of extra treats including a spa day experience and we look forward to returning on our 1st year anniversary for our complimentary dinner"

Celebrating Four Decades of truly wonderful Weddings

"Our whole experience of the day was one of being so relaxed and having fun and not having to worry or stress over anything. From arriving in the Hotel on the day of the wedding we were bowled over by the setup and the effort and hard work that went into making our ceremony room, the banquet room and the Hotel in general look so well. Our guests are still commenting to us on the great day they had and the top service that was provided. Also, the meal was class - good quality tasty food and plenty of it!

You have been a pleasure to deal with from day one and justified 100% our faith and belief in Bloomfield being the perfect choice for our Wedding"

Special dietary requirements catered for

"First and foremost we had a fabulous wedding day at Bloomfield House Hotel. The wedding team couldn't have been more helpful in helping us with the numerous decisions that need to be made for the big day. The grounds are perfect for the photographs, not many hotels are on the shores of a lake! I would like to give Sharon the banqueting manager and her staff a special mention, the service was exemplary. A note on this, I was watching down the floor to ensure everyone was getting the same level of attention as the top table and they were. I also checked with the people I knew that had dietary requirements and they were catered for without fault or fuss.

A friend of mine said to me, "I should have got married in Bloomfield", you can't say much more than that"

All of our guests felt so welcome, I want to say a big thanks to the staff who looked after the kids table during the meal, after the speeches I went down to check on them and they had all their food cut up and little plates of ketchup - the kids all had a great time! Myself and Michael could not have chosen a better hotel for our wedding"

Your day, your way

"We had an amazing day. From the moment we booked Bloomfield as our wedding venue, we felt that we were the only couple to get married that year. Any question or query was answered and nothing was a problem. The staff on the day itself were just exceptional, from Sharon who met us on arrival to the lads who served quite late in the residents bar, every member of staff treated us and our guests like old friends. Before the wedding, we were told that your guests only remember two things: The food and the music. A month after the wedding, our guests are still talking about the superb quality of food and the huge amounts that were offered. There was nothing that we would change about the day and we could not recommend Bloomfield highly enough as a wedding venue"

Once your guests are here, they are here to stay

Venue was stunning for photos, staff were so accommodating, before and on the day, food was fantastic (guests still raving about it) and everyone had a ball! If you are looking for a beautiful, relaxed, chilled environment where people can just enjoy the day and be part of what should essentially be a celebration and a big party...then choose Bloomfield! I would do it all again tomorrow and wouldn't change a thing"

Suite Dreams

"Myself and my husband had our Wedding Reception in Bloomfield House Hotel. Even before the day itself, the staff were so helpful. Any query which we emailed with was answered straight away. We had a menu tasting in February and the food was absolutely fantastic. We met the banqueting manager that evening, Sharon, and she was lovely to deal with. From the moment we arrived at the door of Bloomfield on our Wedding day, everything was perfect. Nothing was too much trouble. The meal was beautiful and was served on time and there was no long delays between courses. We found all the staff to be very helpful and nice. I've since had some wedding guests comment on how nice the staff were and how the wedding meal and the breakfast the next morning were lovely. The grounds of the hotel are beautiful for photographs as it's a lakeside setting so we just went straight from the church to the hotel for photos.

The Honeymoon Suite itself was lovely and spacious and clean with beautiful views. I had to go back to the hotel a few days later as I forgot something, and there was a lovely bag of goodies ready for me...a newspaper from the day of our wedding, a menu (which had our family photo on it), the table plan and wine. It was a lovely touch. I would definitely have to give Bloomfield House Hotel 5 stars and we're so glad we chose to have our wedding reception here"*

Time to cherish those special moments

"We decided to have our wedding reception in Bloomfield as we were greeted with such warmth and professionalism and experienced staff to help co-ordinate our big day and that they did. From start to finish every detail of planning, anything we asked for was not a problem and we were made feel so comfortable about it all. The night of the meal tasting we got to meet our banqueting manager Sharon who again made us feel so special and anything regarding the menu that we asked for was granted without any problems, every tiny detail we asked for on the day was remembered and delivered. On the day itself, we were treated like royalty and made to feel so special. On arrival we noticed how well everything was set up, food at reception, our sweet table and guest books, nothing was forgotten. Sharon made sure we were on time for everything through every step of the way, so we could enjoy spending time with each other and friends and family and not having to worry. The meal was incredible, the meal service impeccable and everything was piping hot, family and friends are still complimenting the food and service. Our guests too were made to feel special which is what we wanted. Our groomsmen had special things lined up for the speeches and Bloomfield helped cater for this, all in secret to us as a surprise. All guests staying in the hotel that night remarked on the clean and warm rooms and our own room was amazing, with room service the following morning, we even got crisp sandwiches from bar staff into the early hours. I could not recommend Bloomfield House Hotel enough for your wedding venue, the staff are amazing, exceeding our expectations, the food top class, the views amazing you will not need to travel anywhere else for pictures so Bloomfield is five star standard, they will never forget"

A piper in a kilt is playing bagpipes at a wedding. The piper is wearing a dark jacket, a red and black kilt, and a red and black sporran. He is also wearing a red and black tam. The bride is standing next to him, holding a bouquet of flowers. The groom is standing behind the piper. The background shows other guests and a white car.

Delight your guests with a day to remember

"We had our wedding at Bloomfield House Hotel at the end of September of this year. We couldn't fault a single thing. From the second we arrived, we were greeted with champagne on arrival and by a piper. We kept the piper as a surprise so the guests are still taking about that perk since! Everything from the atmosphere, the food, the accommodation, the grounds and the staff were in a league of their own. We are still hearing about how wonderful the service from Bloomfield was on our special day which was just that, special, and we owe that to Bloomfield. The day really went without a problem thanks to the organisation from the team there. I would recommend this venue to everyone"
